DEATHS.

EAGER.—Robert Eager, Superintendent of Schools of Lee county, died April 18.

WRIGHT.—Robert Wright, of Sedalia, Mo., died suddenly last week. He is a brother-in-law of Robert Setters, of this city.

RUPARD.—Mrs. Mary Rupard, of Pilot View, Clark county, aged 70 years, died on Sunday, April 19. She was the widow of Rev. Wm. Rupard.

MARTIN.—Mrs. Amanda, wife of Wm. Martin, died recently in Illinois. The body was brought to Bowen, Powell county, and was buried on Sunday, April 19. She was 27 years old.

CHICK.—Friday afternoon, April 24, 1908, after having been a sufferer from heart affection for several months, Mr. George E. Chick, one of our most highly esteemed Christian gentlemen, yielded to death's attack. Mr. Chick was a native of Breckinridge county. Coming to Mt. Sterling in 1884, he and his brother engaged in the milling business, conducting the Climax Mills. After the death of his brother the mill was sold and Mr. Chick became a dealer in coal and feed, doing a successful business until death. He had been married twice and to survive him he leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. E. E. Jones. Mr. Chick was a man of steady, mental powers, an active member and official of the Methodist Church, ever zealous for what he thought was right and uplifting for his fellows. He could be counted on as being on the moral and religious side of all questions. On Sunday afternoon funeral services were conducted at the church by the pastor, Dr. Webber, and what was mortal of this just man was interred in Maehpelah Cemetery. By his death the moral and Christian influences have sustained a severe loss. Peace to his ashes, honor to his memory.

Notice.

All persons indebted to G. E. Chick, now deceased, will please call and settle at once as his business matters must be closed.

Carrie A. Chick.

RELIGIOUS

Miss Rogers, a returned missionary from India, will lecture at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, May 5th.

At Jeffersonville, Ind., on Sunday pastors of six churches exchanged pulpits with each other, the selection being made by drawing tickets.

The W. C. T. U. are holding prayer-meetings each afternoon at 3 o'clock in the rear room of the Christian Church. The pastors of the city will preach sermons on Sunday morning on the Observance of the Lord's Day, thus closing this series of meetings.

"The Sunday newspaper is a great detriment to the work of the adult Bible class. Many men prepare to spend their Sunday mornings with their papers instead of spending it with the Bible or with the Sunday School class," said a Louisville preacher on Sunday.

T. S. Tinsley, for five years pastor of a Christian Church in Louisville, formerly of Owingsville, has accepted a call to Shelbyville, Ky., for June 1. The Louisville Herald calls him "Dr. Tinsley." During these five years the membership of his congregation has doubled and a new church Crescent Hill has been organized.

This is an important week for the Presbyterian Church of this city. Monday and Tuesday evenings Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, their former pastor, preached; Wednesday evening Rev. H. G. Moody will preach and on Thursday evening he will be installed as pastor of the church by a committee appointed by Ebenezer Presbytery. This committee will be composed of Rev. Chas. Lee Reynolds, D. D., of Lexington, who will preach the sermon; Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, who will deliver the charge to the new pastor, and Rev. J. B. Meacham, who will deliver the charge to the congregation. There will be an adjourned meeting of Ebenezer Presbytery here when the Rev. Milne, of Sharpsburg church, will be received into the Presbytery, and he will preach on Friday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present at these services.

Profit sharing sales at Walsh are held on Saturday to give the people in the county an opportunity at low prices. Saturday we sell $5 and $6 boys' knee pants suits for $3.98, cash.

Lieutenant Governor Cox Here.

The 89th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States was celebrated by the local lodge here on Monday night. Lieutenant Governor W. H. Cox, of Maysville, Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from Kentucky was present and was assigned the leading place on the program. Governor Cox is fine in the working of the order and had words of good cheer to the brethren. After work of the lodge a banquet was a source of enjoyment. Watson Lodge is a fine working order that has done much good fostering objects of charity.
